Acknowledgment of Confidentiality

You have the responsibility of safeguarding of	confidential information to which you have access and preventing any such information	from falling into the hands of unauthorized persons who do not have a business need to	know. An employee who gains knowledge within the scope of employment may not take	e advantage of such information for personal gain nor may such information be d	lisclosed to anyone, except as required by the employee's position. Such information in	cludes, but is not limited to, donor and membership lists, unpublished financial infor	mation, personnel records, salaries, and protection and systems of	· The information gained about children, their	families, and volunteers through virtue of employment with	is considered confidential and is not disclosed to third parties without the family's	or individual's consent. Employees will not discuss confidential information about childre	en and/or their families in the presence of other children and/or their families.
Any inquiries from the press or news media s	should be referred to the Director.
l,
confidentiality policy for	and do agree to abide by it.
Employee Signature	Date
Director Signature
Director Signature	Date